

On December 20, 1860,
170 men chosen by a special state-wide election, carefully and deliberately decided in convention that South Carolina would secede from the Union.
These were the first to exclaim "NO MORE!" to an increasingly overbearing and oppressive federal government.
Unanimous in their decision, by signing the Ordinance, each delegate put his life and fortunes in jeopardy for the people of our state.

The South Carolina Division of the Sons of Confederate Veterans will erect a monument in honor of these patriots during the Sesquicentennial to be located in Charleston.

You can support this endeavor and receive a limited edition, numbered
.999% silver collector's coin that will surely increase in value

and also include a permanent memorial to your heritage or yourself in the plaza for all the future to see and appreciate!

Congratulations in choosing to have yours or your ancestor's name included with some of the most honorable and devoted patriots of South Carolina. This monument, dedicated to the South Carolina Secession Signers, and its grounds will be a lasting tribute to some of the greatest men of our state. It will be a historical edifice that will tell their true story for future generations and stand as a long deserved testament to their bravery and selfless sacrifices.

Your memorial paver with its inscription will be permanently recorded in the archives of the South Carolina Division of the Sons of Confederate Veterans and be randomly placed in the Cross of Honor on the plaza surrounding the base of the monument.
